

STUDY APPROACH

- The study will be conducted in either format chosen by the program coordinator: History and Architecture or Lifestyle and Architecture
- BUILDING SELECTION
Selected subjects (building) of study will be decided by the program coordinator
Any proposal by the students can be made by submitting a form provided to be evaluated and approved by KALAM.
- BRIEFING
Before the field work starts, students have to attend a few briefing sessions. The sessions will brief about the program and several related issues. Groups will be identified and formed during the 1st session. Only students that have been approved are eligible to register in this program. Other form of registration to this program is not accepted.
